State Workforce Development Board to Meet November 14

NASHVILLE – Tennessee's State Workforce Development Board Meeting will meet on Friday, November 14, 2003, at the Southeast Tennessee Development District, 535 Chestnut Street, Chattanooga, TN at 8:15 a.m. eastern time.

The board meeting agenda includes a discussion of the state's workforce development system, an update on addressing skills shortages in health care, update on governor's job cabinet, labor market information, WIA reauthorization and partner coordination.

The state's WIA program is delivered through the Tennessee Career Center System, which consists of 15 comprehensive career centers and approximately 55 affiliate sites. Services provided include a wide range of job training and employment services for adults, youth, and dislocated workers as authorized under the WIA.

Individuals with disabilities who wish to participate in the meeting should contact the Tennessee Department of Labor & Workforce Development to discuss auxiliary aids or other services needed to facilitate such participation. This may be done in person, by writing, telephone, or other means and should be made no fewer than five days prior to the scheduled meeting date to allow time to provide such aid or service.

The Department of Labor & Workforce Development's Employment and Training section's address is Davy Crockett Tower, 12th Floor, 500 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, TN 37245. The office telephone numbers are (615) 741-1031 or 1-800-255-5872.
